Type of instruction

The teaching consists of lectures held by different experts, seminars and exercises performed individually or in groups. Active participation is required.

A digital learning platform is used.

Students who have been admitted to and registered on a course have the right to receive instruction/supervision for the duration of the time period specified for the particular course to which they were accepted. After that, the right to receive instruction/supervision expires.

The teaching is conducted in English.

Prerequisites

General entrance requirements.

Fluency in English equivalent to at least a 575 (paper-based scale) or 90 (internet-based scale) score. IELTS: with an overall band score of 6.5 and no part below 5.5. Competency in Swedish language is not required (or the equivalent).

TOEFL

Examination and grades

The course is graded A, B, C, D, E, FX or F.

The grades A, B, C, D and E are all passing grades. For courses with more than one examination, students are given a final grade based on an overall assessment of all examinations included in the course. The final grade of the course is issued only when all course units have been passed.

Written individual examination of both parts of the course. Compulsory attendance.

Language exam (ILOs 1, 3, 4)

Written assignment (ILOs 2, 5)

Registration of examination:

| Name of the Test | Value | Grading |
|--------------------|-------------|----------------|
| Language exam | 4.5 credits | A/B/C/D/E/FX/F |
| Written assignment | 3 credits | A/B/C/D/E/FX/F |

Course evaluation

At the end of the course, a course evaluation is performed and commented on by the course coordinator and, if possible, a student/students (course developer/s). The course evaluation, which is published on the relevant learning platform and submitted to the study administration, is to function as a basis for future improvements to the course.

Other information

The course will give the students a basic knowledge of Swedish language, culture and society. It consists of two parts: lessons of the Swedish language and lectures (in English) on Swedish culture and society.
