Type of instruction

The teaching consists of lectures, seminars and exercises performed individually or in groups.

A digital learning platform is used.

Students who have been admitted to and registered on a course have the right to receive instruction/supervision for the duration of the time period specified for the particular course to which they were accepted. After that, the right to receive instruction/supervision expires.

The teaching is conducted in English.

Prerequisites

Participation in the course Swedish Language, Culture and Society 1 (or the equivalent).

Examination and grades

The course is graded A, B, C, D, E, FX or F.

The grades A, B, C, D and E are all passing grades. For courses with more than one examination, students are given a final grade based on an overall assessment of all examinations included in the course. The final grade of the course is issued only when all course units have been passed.

Written and oral individual examination at the end of the course.

Language exam (ILOs 1, 3, 4)
3 written and oral assignments (ILOs 2, 5)

Registration of examination:

Name of the Test	Value	Grading
Language exam	5 credits	A/B/C/D/E/FX/F
3 written and oral assignments	2.5 credits	A/B/C/D/E/FX/F

Course evaluation

At the end of the course, a course evaluation is performed and commented on by the course coordinator and, if possible, a student/students (course developer/s). The course evaluation, which is published on the relevant learning platform and submitted to the study administration, is to function as a basis for future improvements to the course.

Other information

The course will give the students an increased knowledge of Swedish language and culture and train them to use the language in oral and written communication.
